CHARLES G. DRIESELL

MARYLAND'S WINNINGEST BASKETBALL COACH

After 12 years in College Park, Terrapin Basketball Coach Charles G. Driesell has established one of the finest basketball programs in the nation at the University of Maryland. In doing so, he has also helped increase interest in the sport throughout the area while building Maryland into a traditional power.

When Driesell accepted the challenge at College Park to turn around a team that had not finished over .500 in three years, he immediately began to build a solid, winning program that packed Terp fans into Cole Field House to witness his exciting brand of basketball.

Driesell showed his fans the shape of things to come when his first Maryland team reached the .500 mark. From there, he has gone on to win 244 games in 12 seasons at Maryland, surpassing his four predecessors and becoming Maryland's winningest basketball coach. In 24 years Coach H. Burton Shipley won 243 games, while Bud Millikan amassed 242 in 17 years. It has taken Coach Driesell just a dozen seasons to accumulate 244 wins, averaging 20.3 per year.

Driesell brought a winning image to the University and wasted little time instilling it into the Terrapins. Only one other active coach has a better winning percentage than Driesell's .716 in 21 years as a major college head coach, including nine years at Davidson. In his 21 year career, Driesell's teams have averaged 20.0 wins a year, with a record of 420 wins against only 167 losses.

While building Maryland into a powerhouse, Driesell has also found time to develop many professional basketball players. a Rhodes Scholar, and three Phi Beta Kappas. Ten of his former assistant coaches have moved on to head coaching positions at such schools as Cincinnati, Davidson, George Mason, Point Park, South Carolina State, University of the District of Columbia, Virginia, Washington State, West Virginia and William and Mary.

Competing in one of the toughest basketball conferences in the nation, Driesell's Maryland program has also gained national prominence. No other ACC or NCAA team has ever been more proficient at shooting — his teams always rank among the nation's leaders in scoring, rebounding, free throw shooting and winning. He has never had a team outrebounded while 12 of his teams have topped the 50 percent mark in field goal shooting. Thirteen of his teams have won over 20 games in a season as 11 of them have averaged over 80 points per game, including the Maryland team record of 89.9 set in 1974-75.

Driesell has had 13 teams ranked in the Top 20. Of his seven Top 20 teams at Maryland, five came in consecutive years. Seven of his Top 20 squads have been ranked in the Top 10, with four of them at Maryland. He has coached four conference champion teams and his 1972 Maryland squad won the National Invitational Tournament.

His Terps have also excelled in International competition, sporting a 16-1 record against some of the best teams in the world, including games against the USSR and Yugoslavian National teams. Maryland has beaten all six of the international squads that have visited Cole Field House while the Terps have also won the Eighth Intercontinental Cup Games in Mexico City in 1974 and the 1980 Kirin World Cup Games, held in Japan.

In his 12 years at College Park, over two million fans have visited Cole Field House to watch the Maryland Basketball Terrapins. The Terps have averaged 12,109 fans a date and 181.644 a season just to watch regular season games.

Driesell graduated from Duke in 1954 and began his coaching career as the Junior Varsity Coach at Granby High School in his hometown of Norfolk, Va. He became Granby's Varsity Coach one year later but quickly advanced to Newport News High School where his teams compiled a 57 game winning streak while winning 64 of 70 games in two years. His overall high school record was solid, with 97 wins and only 15 losses. He also coached the J.V. football squad to two undefeated seasons.

Driesell took over the program at Davidson College in 1960 and immediately began to demonstrate his coaching ability. His first team had the best record at Davidson in five years. His second team had the first winning season at Davidson in 13 years. By Driesell's third season, Davidson recorded its first 20 win season in 54 years of competition and gained national prominence.

Driesell led Davidson to six 20-victory seasons with six Top 20 teams of which three were Top 10. After leading Davidson to a 27-3 finish and Third place National ranking in 1969, he accepted the challenge of building a winning program at the University of Maryland in College Park.

At Maryland, Driesell wasted no time in transforming a loser into a winner. The Terps finished 13-13 that first year and 14-12 the next. By his third season at Maryland, Driesell led the Terps to a 27-5 record and the National Invitational Tournament Championship and an 11th place national ranking.

Maryland was ranked in the Top 10 for the next three years, finishing 23-7 in 1973 (Eighth in the nation), 23-5 in 1974 (Fourth on A.P., third on U.P.I.), and 24-5 in 1975 (Fifth in the nation). The Terps gained a berth in the Eastern Regional Finals in 1973 and the Midwest Regional Finals in 1975. Driesell's 1975 Terp squad also set an NCAA record for field goal accuracy, hitting 54.7 percent from the floor. For Driesell, it was the second time a team of his set the record, the first coming at Davidson.

In 1979-80, Driesell's Terrapins were picked to finish sixth in the ACC, but ran up an 11-3 conference record to finish first. With an overall record of 24-7, Maryland was ranked eighth in both wire service polls and finished second in the nation in field goal percentage, shooting 55.1 percent from the filoor. It was the best percentage ever for a Driesell coached team.

The Terps lost in the finals of the ACC Tournament but advanced to the semi-finals of the NCAA Eastern Regionals. Post-season recognition came in droves for Driesell and the Terrapins. Driesell was named ACC Coach of the Year and District Coach of the Year. He produced a First-Team All-American forward in Albert King and an Olympic Team member in Buck Williams.

King was also named ACC Player of the Year and the ACC Tournament MVP while setting a Maryland single season scoring record with 674 points. Guard Greg Manning made ACC All-American honors for the third year in a row while leading the conference in both field goal and free throw shooting percentage, the first time any ACC player has won both titles outright.

Last year Coach Driesell once again guided his team to a Top Twenty finish. The 1980-81 Terps finished the season with a record of 21-10 and made their second consecutive appearance in the NCAA Tournament. It marked the seventh time that Driesell guided the Terps to 20 or more victories.

Albert King became the Terp's all-time leading scorer, finishing his career at the University with 2,058 points. Ernest Graham and Greg Minning also ended their careers among the top five in scoring. Graham finished fourth with 1,607 points, followed by Manning in the fifth spot with 1,561 points. Manning also established new marks for career field goal and free throw accuracy, hitting 58% of his shots from the floor and 86% of his foul shots.

In the ACC Tournament, the Terps once again missed by just a single point of bringing home the gold. After defeating Duke 56-53 in the opening round, the Terps came through with their most satisfying win of the year, defeating the Cavaliers of Virginia 85-62 in the semi-final game. Maryland lost in the finals to North Carolina, 61-60 but advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament with an 81-69 victory over Tennessee-Chattanooga.

Among the many recognitions Coach Driesell has received, one of the most precious has to be the NCAA "Award of Valor". Driesell became the first coach to receive the award when he helped save the lives of at least ten children and several adults from a townhouse fire near Bethany Beach, Delaware, in 1973.

Driesell, who was born on Christmas Day in 1931, has also been honored as a basketball player. A three sport player at Granby High School, Driesell was named All-State in 1950 when his team won the Virginia State Championships. He was also named the outstanding player in the state tournament and received a scholarship to attend Duke. The 1954 Duke team he played on was ranked tenth in the nation and won the Dixie Classic.

Driesell and his wife, Joyce, are the parents of three daughters, Patty, Pam and Carolyn, and a son, Charles who joins the Maryland team this fall as a 6'2" guard. All are members of the Colesville United Methodist Church.

TERRAPIN TRADITION ... FROM

JOHN LUCAS (76) 1st Round 1st Pick Houston Rockets

BUCK WILLIAMS (81) 1st Round 3rd Pick New Jersey Nets

TOM McMILLEN (74) 1st Round 9th Pick Buffalo Braves Present - Atlanta Hawks

STEVE SHEPPARD (77) 2nd Round Pick Chicago Bulls

In 1969, when Charles G. Driesell was named head coach of the Maryland Terrapins, he immediately began to build a basketball program that would represent both excellence and pride. The basis of any fine athletic team constitutes quality student-athletes and that's exactly what Coach Driesell has recruited for the past 12 years.

There have been scores of All-ACC players and numerous All-Americans, but the fact that 18 of Coach Driesell's players have been drafted by the National Basketball Association is proof of Coach Driesell's fine recruiting efforts.

This string of 18 began in 1971 when Barry Yates was selected by the Philadelphia 76ers. In 1971 Yates helped lead Maryland to a 14-12 record, Coach Driesell's first winning season in College Park.

In the 1972 draft Driesell had 3 Terrapins selected by the professional ranks. Third round pick Jim O'Brien of the Portland Trailblazers was the 37th player selected overall. He had helped the Terps attain a 23-7 record and a trip to the NCAA tournament, another first for Driesell at Maryland.

Jim's teammate Bob Bodell was the next Terp selected. The Seattle Supersonics made him their tenth round choice. Bodell, best known for his defense and durability, had played in 88 consecutive varsity games for the Terrapins.

The final Terp selected in that 1973 draft was Howard White picked in the 14th round by the Capital Bullets.

Maryland was ranked 4th in the nation in 1974 with a 23-5 record. At seasons end the Terps were to lose two of its finest players ever. Tom McMillen, an All-American, a Rhodes Scholar and Maryland's 3rd all-time career scorer was selected by the Buffalo Braves in the 1st round. He was the ninth pick overall in the draft. His teammate Len Elmore was selected four choices later by the Washington Bullets. Elmore was also an All-American, and lists as Maryland's leading career rebounder with (1053) caroms to his credit.

Maurice "Mo" Howard was an All-ACC performer for the Terrapins in 1975 and was a second round draft choice of the Cleveland Cavaliers. Three Terps were to be drafted that year. Tom Roy was next to go, being a 3rd round pick of the Portland Trailblazers.

After scoring 431 points his senior year, Owen Brown was selected in the 9th round by the Phoenix Suns.

LEN ELMORE (74) 1st Round 13th Pick Washington Bullets Present - Milwaukee Bucks

BRAD DAVIS (77) 1st Round 15th Pick Los Angeles Lakers Present - Dallas Mavericks

MO HOWARD (75) 2nd Round Pick

TOM ROY (75) 3rd Round Pick Portland Trailblazers

Maryland sent only one of its graduates to the N.B.A. in 1976, but oh, what a player he was. A 1st team All-American, John Lucas was the 1st player drafted that year, picked by the Houston Rockets. Maryland's 2nd all-time career scorer, he was an unselfish player who still holds the Maryland career record for assists.

A well-rounded performer, Brad Davis, who is second to Lucas in career assists, also scored over 1,000 points while in a Terrapin uniform. An All-ACC (2nd) choice in 1977 he was another Driesell 1st round draft choice. Picked 15th overall, Davis went to the Los Angeles Lakers.

Besides "Mo" Howard, Maryland has had only one other 2nd round draft pick, that of Steve Sheppard in 1977. He was selected by the Chicago Bulls after scoring 1219 career points as a Terrapin.

An All-ACC tournament player his senior year, Lawrence Boston was a 4th round selection of the Washington Bullets in 1978. Again in 1979, the Terrapins sent only one player to the professional ranks, that of Larry Gibson an All-ACC performer. The Milwaukee Bucks chose him in the 3rd round.

Maryland's 1981 contribution to professional basketball may have been its finest ever. Buck Williams left College Park in his junior year to be selected 3rd overall by the New Jersey Nets, Williams had been an All-American and a U.S. Olympic Team member.

Buck's roommate was to be selected 10th overall, only seven choices later. Albert King, Maryland's all-time leading career scorer was a 1st team All-American. While in high school he had been rated as one of the top 3 schoolboy players in the nation, and he certainly turned out to be one of Coach Driesell's finest recruiting efforts.

A prolific scorer, Ernest Graham was the next Terrapin to be selected in that 1981 draft. Taken in the third round by the Philadelphia 76ers, Graham had once scored 44 points against N.C. State, a Maryland record.

Six-foot, one inch Greg Manning was selected by the Denver Nuggets in the 7th round. Manning was undoubtedly one of the finest and most consistent shooters ever to set foot in Cole Field House.

The future of the Terrapin's Basketball program is still in the hands of Coach Driesell. It can well be assumed that this list of Terps who have left for a professional career will continue to grow, and that the tradition and excellence of the Maryland program will continue to prosper.

OWEN BROWN (75) 9th Round Pick Phoenix Suns

BOB BODELL (73) 10th Round Pick Seattle Supersonics

HOWARD WHITE (73) 14th Round Pick Capital Bullets

ERNEST GRAHAM (81) 3rd Round Pick Philadelphia 76'ers

DR. JOHN SAMPSON TOLL PRESIDENT

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

John S. Toll, the 22nd president of the University of Maryland, has become a vital force for higher education in the State of Maryland.

The drive behind the Toll presidency is a pledge that "with a determined effort from everyone concerned, the University of Maryland can, in about a decade, become one of the best state university systems in the nation.'

Since he became president on July 1, 1978, the University has developed planning documents for the Eastern Shore and Baltimore County Campuses; has initiated multi-campus programs which utilize the resources of the College Park Campus and the University of Maryland at Baltimore; is helping to develop plans through University College for a national television education system; and has raised undergraduate admission standards.

More than $465,000 in grants, including a $190,000 Carnegie Foundation award, were obtained in the first eight months of the Toll presidency to assist Dr. Toll in developing his "Agenda for the 80's" a plan to assure that the University will meet future societal needs. The Carnegie grant will fund an intensive study of the University's roles and missions by a team of educational experts. The results of the study may make the University of Maryland a model for other universities.

"The University of Maryland must adapt to new circumstances and respond to new demands that are being made of universities to provide increasing services to the

"The College Park Campus," says Robert L. Gluckstern, Chancellor of the eighth largest campus in the nation, "is reaffirming its commitments to research, scholarship, and the advancement of knowledge, including the search for solution to social problems and the pursuit of excellence for its own sake."

One program that emphasizes academic excellence is the Chancellor's Scholars Program. With financial support from alumni and other friends of the University, the Chancellor's Scholars Program seeks to attract and retain top quality students to College Park through the annual award of $500 renewable scholarships to outstanding high school students.

The Distinguished Scholar-Teachers Program, established last year, emphasizes academic excellence by recognizing faculty members who have been particularly successful at translating scholarship into classroom teaching. Each of the six professors selected are given time to develop an honors seminar, a graduate seminar, and a series of public lectures in connection with their areas of expertise during the coming year.

College Park's General Honors Program, now in its fifteenth year, has come to be respected as one of the best of its kind throughout the nation. Despite the pressures of administration, Dr. Gluckstern contributes by teaching a General Honors course in physics almost every semester. He also continues to be active in re-

The accent on quality that has characterized Dr. Gluckstern's administration leads naturally from his own society," President Toll said. "This process of reshaping the University to gain more effective use of resources, to expand the service mission, and to increase the excellence of the teaching and research missions is now underway. The University intends to bring its resources to bear on the social and economic development of the State of Maryland and to develop scholarly programs and research projects that will help the state and the nation prosper during the next decade."

Dr. Toll first came to the University in 1953 as professor and chairman of what was then a six-man physics department.

Dr. Toll received his undergraduate degree in physics from Yale where he graduated with highest honors. His advanced physics degrees were earned at Princeton. An avid jogger, camper and tennis player, Dr. Toll and his wife Deborah have two daughters.

academic background. Educated at the City College of New York (Electrical Engineering) and MIT (Ph.D. in Physics), Dr. Gluckstern taught at Yale University for fourteen years. In 1964 he joined the faculty at the University of Massachusetts at Amherst as professor and chairman of the physics and astronomy department. Under his leadership, the department grew from 14 to 52 faculty members and increased federal support from $30,000 to $950,000 a year.

A member of the Terrapin Club, he is an avid fan and works out on the racquetball courts. He frequently reminds people that Maryland can be proud of its athletes who have combined varsity skills with excellent academic records.

Dr. Gluckstern, who is 55, was born in Atlantic City, New Jersey. He is married to the former Norma Block. The Glucksterns have three children.

mately $30,000.

Tom Fields has reached a goal that many said could not be achieved when he took over as Executive Director of the Maryland Educational Foundation in 1970.

For the past fiscal year the funds generated by the Educational Foundation totaled $1,250,000. When Fields returned to the University of Maryland the contributions to the Educational Foundation were minimal. For the fiscal year ending June 30, 1970 the contributions were approxi-

The membership of the Terrapin Club has expanded accordingly from the 132 original members to 1,900. The club in addition to the contributions to the Educational Foundation supports the athletic program in many other ways, especially with their attendance at the events. Over one half of the contributors did not attend the University of Maryland but all are strong supporters of Intercollegiate Athletics and its principals of competition.

The funds provided by the foundation have enabled the Terrapins to develop a Women's program that has also gained national recognition. The scholarship program for the women athletes is on a par with the program for the men's non-revenue sports.

The Terrapin Club membership currently includes 40 life members ($10,000 contribution), 49 Super Terrapins ($2,500 annual contributions), 543 Diamondback members ($1,200 annual contribution) and 416 Gold members ($600 annual contribution).

Fields, a retired Colonel from the Marine Corps returned to Maryland in 1970, where as a track star he helped lead the Terps to one of their finest days ever at the Penn Relays winning three Championship of America relay races. During World War II he served in combat in Guadalcanal, Vella Lavella, Bouganville and Iwo Jima. He also served in Korea and Vietnam and at the time of his retirement from the Corps he was the Deputy Director of Information, Headquarters, Marine Corps.

The University of Maryland

In 1807, seven years before Francis Scott Key wrote "The Star Spangled Banner" at Fort McHenry, the University of Maryland was founded in Baltimore as the College of Medicine. An entirely faculty-owned institution granting the M.D. degree, it was the Nation's fifth medical school.

When its name was changed to the University of Maryland five years later, it was given power to confer additional degrees. The first dental school in America, the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery, became a part of the University in 1840. Subsequently, the University opened schools of pharmacy, law and nursing.

In 1856, a group of Maryland people prevailed upon the General Assembly "to establish and endow an agricultural college in the State of Maryland." Thus, the second institution, first called the Maryland Agricultural College, came into being at College Park.

After a disastrous fire in 1912, the State acquired control of the College and bore the cost of rebuilding. In 1920, the State took over the faculty-owned University of Baltimore, merging it with the State-owned institution at College Park to form the present-day University of Maryland.

The University flies the Maryland State flag, the oldest flag in America, authorized in 1632 by Charles I when he established Maryland Colony under Caecilius Calvert, Baron of Baltimore. The University's seal is similiarly based upon the State seal, the oldest in the United States.

Today, the University of Maryland at College Park (UMCP) is described as a Georgian Colonial campus, with nearly 200 buildings spaced across a rolling 1300 acre park-like setting. The College Park campus is a city of young people with all the advantages, excitement and problems of a community. While the focus of the campus community is on its academic and intellectual activities, the campus has its own daity newspaper, its own police department, an 18 hole golf course, hotel, stores, movie house, theatre, art gallery, pub, bowling alley, tennis courts and swimming pools.

An undergraduate student may specialize in one of 125 majors or create a program of individual studies. Pre-professional education is offered in 13 fields and the academically talented student may take advantage of the Honors Program. The graduate student may choose from among 83 academic concentrations.

Noted for the academic strength of its programs, UMCP is one of 51 members of the prestigious Association of American Universities. It is currently the seventh largest university in the nation — and, with such size, comes quality. This means better facilities, not only in the day-to-day classroom, but also in the research and faculty staff. The teacher staff consists of over 6,000 personnel — which brings the student/professor ratio down to 16-1. This allows Maryland to offer a degree in a variety of fields.

The McKeldin Library is the general library of the University containing reference works, periodicals, circulating books and other material in all fields of research and instruction. Branch libraries include the Undergraduate Library completed in 1972, seats over 4,000 readers and shelves up to 200,000 volumes. The McKeldin Library mainly supports the graduate and research programs of the University but is opened to all undergraduate students.

Research is an important part of the University of Maryland and it ranks as one of the finest research centers in the country. A total of $50 million is being spent during the current academic year on research projects. Among the facilities available to the Maryland students are the Institute of Child Study, the National Resources Institute, the Van de Graff accelerators, a five story computer building, a nuclear reactor, and collaborative arrangements with many of the nearby governmental installations. The University houses the world's largest sectored isochronous Cyclotron and owns the world's largest radio telescope at Clark Lake, Calif. The University developed a Center for Environmental and Estuarine studies near Cambridge, Md. The Center deals with several projects relating to the ecological problems of the Chesapeake Bay and surrounding marshland. A sister center was set up in Frostburg, Md., the Appalachian Environmental Laboratory, to study Maryland's forest and wildlife resources.

The facilities, faculty, history and flexibility are not Maryland's only strengths. The University is totally committed to the individual student. A full-time advisor is provided by our Athletic Department for personal and vocational counseling for student-athletes.

Rhodes Scholar, Maryland graduate and Terrapin All-American basketball star Tom McMillen addresses his graduation class.

TERRAPIN NOTES

FIVE CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES

Driesell's Terrapins have advanced to the semifinals of the ACC tournament in nine of the last ten years, a feat equaled only by North Carolina. The Terps have gone on to play in five championship games.

TERPS LEAD ACC IN ATTENDANCE

Over two million fans have come to Cole Field House to watch the Terps since Driesell took control of the team 12 years ago. In the 15 home games last season, Maryland played before 196,978 for an average of 13,132 per game, ranking Maryland 17th in the nation, up 3,081 from the previous year. The year before Driesell came to College Park the Terps drew 66,500 for ten games, an average of 6,650 per game. In his 12 years at Maryland Driesell has drawn 2,392,291 fans into Cole Field House and the Terps have led the ACC in total attendance for the past 10 years.

TERPS WIN ON THE ROAD

One of the toughest places in collegiate basketball to win is on the home court of the four North Carolina schools in the ACC. Coach Driesell's Terps swept all four games there in 1975, won three of four in 1977 and split the four games in 1972, 1974, 1979, 1980 and 1981. During those ten years (1972-1981) the Terps are 18-22 in regular season games in North Carolina and 10-8 in tournament games in Greensboro. During the same period the Terps are 13-9 on the home courts of the Clemson Tigers, Virginia Cavaliers and Georgia Tech Yellow Jackets for an overall ACC record of 31-31. During the same period the Terrapins are 23-16 at home against the league opponents.

NEW ATTENDANCE RECORDS

In last season's 31 games the Terrapins established a new overall attendance record of 398,036 erasing the previous record of 353,463 in 32 games during the 1971-72 season. The Terrapins also established a new single game attendance record with an average of 12,840 for 31 games.

STATISTICAL LEADERS

Keeping in par with his fine past performances in the assist column, Senior guard Dutch Morley tied the Maryland record for most assists in a single game with 12 vs. Marshall University. During the 1979-80 season Morley had been credited with 11 assists against Bucknell, 10 against Miami (Ohio) and Georgetown and eight assists twice.

Terrapin fans hope that Sophomore guard Steve Rivers will try to penetrate the opponent's defenses in an attempt to draw fouls, for in the 1980-81 season Rivers led the Terps with a free-throw percentage of .917.

Terp guard Reggie Jackson spent little time warming the bench last season. While seeing action in all 31 contests and starting 23 of those, he returns as the Terp with the most minutes played, 695.

Maryland fans will also be looking for Senior forward Charles Pittman to be filling up the bucket after he led last season's Terps in field goals with a .670 percentage.

DRIESELL'S TEAMS SET NEW RECORDS

One major characteristic of all Coach Driesell's teams has been their ability to shoot well. When Driesell was at Davidson his team was 2nd in the nation in Team Field Goal Percentage in 1965 (.509) and 1966 (.512). His 1964 team set a new NCAA record with a .543 percentage. After coming to College Park his teams continued this excellence, for the Terrapins were 2nd in the nation in 1974 (.510) and 1980 (.551). They also led the nation in 1976 with a .537 pct., and a new NCAA record in 1975 with a shooting percentage of .547.

DRIESELL TWICE COACH OF THE YEAR

Terrapin Coach Charles G. Driesell has twice been named this honor in his eleven years at Maryland. The first time came in 1975 when he led Maryland to a 24-5 record and fifth place in the National rankings, along with a first place ACC finish. The second time came in 1980 when the Terrapins were ranked eighth nationally in both wire service polls with a 24-7 record.

ALL-TIME TERP CAREER SCORERS

In 1981 Albert King became Maryland's all-time leading career scorer with 2,058 points, surpassing John Lucas's 2,015 points. All of the top ten career scorers at Maryland are products of Coach Driesell except Bob Kessler (1953-56), who is seventh and Washington Bullet Coach Gene Shue (1951-54), who is fourth on the all-time list.

DRIESELL AND THE TERPS IN INTERNATIONAL COMPETITION

The Maryland Terrapins under Coach Driesell have a 16-1 record in International Competition. Driesell and the Terps have hosted six National Teams in Cole Field House and have won all six games, including an overtime decision against the Russian National Team. In addition, Maryland represented the United States in both the Eighth Intercontinental Cup Games in Mexico in 1974 and the Kirin World Cup Games in Japan in 1980, winning both team championships.

This 16th list of the "Top Twenty Basketball Coaches" is compiled by the same formula as the "Top Twenty Football Coaches," originated by Elmore "Scoop" Hudgins 24 years ago. Records of head coaches at all major colleges are researched, with the aid of the NCAA Bureau, for the twenty with the most victories against other four-year schools. This edition requires 315 wins. Each coaches' total won-lost record must prove a plus and must include five year's service at a major school. The twenty totals are then listed by their winning percentages.

Coach Charles "Lefty" Driesell is one of only three ACC head coaches (past & present) to have also played in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Formed in the 1953-54 school year, Coach Driesell played in the conference his senior year at Duke. It was in that initial year that Duke won the conference regular season race with a 9-1 record and went on to finish the year 22-6.

OUR ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICAN

When a person is named to an Academic All-American team, it is symbolic of the long hours of training and sacrifice our athletes dedicate themselves to, and it is also a source of pride for both the school and the nation to call an All-American one of their own and one of the best.

The University of Maryland basketball program is honored to boast the academic achievements of their student athletes, and in particular pay tribute to last year's outstanding swing guard Greg Manning. A tremendous competitor, Manning excelled both on and off the court.

For two consecutive years the 6'1" guard from Highspire, Pennsylvania was selected to the CoSida Academic All-American second team. To be eligible for the Academic All-American team sponsored by the College Sports Information Directors of America, an athlete must be a starter on his squad as well as maintain at least a 3.0 grade point average for the previous school year. This past year Manning placed 11th in the overall voting, received 121 votes, and was one of 14 players to tally over 100 votes.

Greg's achievements on the court paralleled those in the classroom. A four year starter, he finished his career tying the Maryland record for most varsity games played in with 118. Ranked fifth on Maryland's all-time scoring list with 1,561 points, Manning set

Dr. Charles Taff, Chairman of the Athletic Council, with Academic All-American Greg Manning on graduation day.

Maryland records for career field goal and free throw percentage, connecting on 58.3% and 85.8% respectively.

Enjoying a stellar four year career, Manning's junior season has to be singled out as the most outstanding. During the 1979-80 season he was named to the ACC-All Tournament team as well as the All-ACC second team. He was the first player in the history of the conference to lead the ACC in both Field Goal (64.3%) and Free Throw (90.8%) percentage. Nationally he ranked 6th in field goal percentage and 4th in free throw percentage; a feat more frequently accomplished by centers and forwards playing closer to the bucket.

It seemed apropos that following graduation Manning was the recipient of a NCAA scholarship for post graduate study at the University or professional school of his choice. As a government and politics major, the award could certainly have been used for law school, but Manning's aspirations for a law career were temporarily detained as he put every effort into making the Denver Nugget Basketball squad, the team that drafted him in the seventh round of the N.B.A. draft in June.

TERP OLYMPIANS

1976 Olympian Steve "Bear" Sheppard with teammate Adrian Dantley and Gold Medal.

1972 Olympian Tom McMillen

The ultimate individual award in the world of intercollegiate athletics is to become an All-American and to hopefully go on to represent the United States in international competition. To be named to an Olympic team is both an honor and a tribute, rewarding the top American athletes for the effort and dedication that places them among the best in the world.

Three Terrapin basketball players have earned berths on the prestigious United States team, with all three selected in the past three Olympic years.

Tom McMillen, who ranks as the number three career scorer in Maryland history, became the first Terp to wear the Olympic basketball jersey in 1972. The outstanding center and three time All-American, who started for three years for Coach Driesell, helped the U.S. team win the Silver Medal.

A Rhodes Scholar and N.B.A. player, McMillen's teammates included Tom Burleson of N.C. State, Bobby Jones of North Carolina, Doug Collins of Illinois State. Ed Ratleff of Long Beach State and Tom Henderson of Hawaii. The '72 Olympic team was coached by Henry Iba.

Steve Sheppard, known to Maryland fans as "Bear", was selected to the 1976 Olympic team. An integral part of the Maryland basketball team for three years, Bear provided muscle and leadership in helping the United States win the Gold Medal at the '76 Olympic Games in Montreal.

Led by coach Dean Smith of North Carolina the United States defeated Italy, Puerto Rico, Yugoslavia, Czechoslavakia and Canada. Sheppard's teammates included Adrian Dantley of Notre Dame, Phil Hubbard of Michigan, Scott May and Quinn Buckner of Indiana, Walter Davis, Phil Ford, Mitch Kupchak and Tommy LaGarde of North Carolina, Kenny Carr of N.C. State and Tate Armstrong of Duke.

Buck Williams, Maryland's tenacious power forward for three seasons, was chosen for the 1980 Olympic team. He and North Carolina's Al Wood were the only ACC players selected. The two were roommates as the 1980 Olympians played to a 4-2 record against various NBA All-Star teams. They also defeated the Gold Medal winning 1976 U.S. team.

A first round draft pick of the New Jersey Nets, Williams Olympic teammates included, along with Wood, Michael Brooks of LaSalle, Mark Aguirre of De Paul, Sam Bowie of Kentucky, and Isiah Thomas of Indiana.
